PLOTTERS CAUSE
EXPLOSIONS IN
SHELL FACTORYPresident Johnson of Baldwin Works Agrees With Head of the PlantDEATH LIST TOTALS 116
THIRTY-SIX ARE MISSINGSeventy Bodies Remain Unidentified In Morgue at Chester

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chester, Pa., April 11.—President Alba B. Johnson of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, changed his theory that the Eddystone explosion was due to an accident after a visit today to the plant. He now agrees with the view of Samuel M. Vauclain, president of the Eddystone Ammunition Corporation, that plotters caused the explosion.

"The explosion was the result of a diabolical plot conceived in the degenerate mind of a demon in human guise," declared a high official of the Eddystone Ammunition Corporation today. He said that for obvious reasons he could not permit
the use of his name.

This official said that investigation concluded this afternoon had shown that a bomb manufactured from a shell in the plant by one of the employees had caused yesterday's explosion and the loss of at least of 116 lives.

"Although we have only circumstantial evidence," Mr. Johnson said,
"it looks as if some one touched off
a bomb or time clock with an explosive attached. I have become convinced after a talk with the Eddystone officials, that the catastrophe could not have occurred through an accident."

The Chester police have released
two suspects, father and son, named Cohen, arrested last night.

After making a careful investigation, W. H. Wilhelm, general manager of the munitions plant, said this afternoon that 116 are dead as a result of yesterday's explosion. Forty-six of the dead have been identified but the remaining bodies are so badly mutilated that identification is almost impossible.

President Vauclain said the families of those killed and injured
would be provided for by the company.

Revised lists this morning placed the number of dead at 122, the majority girls and young women. Between 125 and 150 men, women and girls were injured, at least ten being so burned and torn by shrapnel fragments that death was probably expected. Twenty-three others employed in the structure are missing.

Some of the victims, company officials believe, were blown into the Delaware river, so that an exact calculation of the death list may never be possible.

Official opinion of the cause,
whether accidental or malicious, is divided. Alba B. Johnson, president of the Baldwin Locomotive works, which owns the Eddystone works, asserted the disaster proba-

ALIEN ENEMIES
HELD AT EL PASO
FOUR ARRESTED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
El Paso, Texas, April 11.—The arrest of Germans as alien enemies by federal and local authorities continues here.

A German guest in a hotel was arrested last night and two Germans were arrested earlier near the Smelter with a code of signals in their possession. Friends of Frederick Reuter, acting German vice-consul in Juarez, who was placed in Fort Bliss stockade Monday are making no effort to have him released.
He is said to be held under the secretion which prohibits Germans from leaving the country. Reuter insisted upon crossing to Juarez each day
from his home in El Paso to attend to the business of the German vice-consulate. After having been warned he was taken into custody.

No charge has been filed against him. Other Germans in Juarez have been warned to remain there, including Mrs. Max Weber, widow of the Former Vice Consul in Juarez.

average of 10 per cent of the face value of the policy.

VON HINDENBURG
LINE IS WAVERING
BEFORE ASSAULTBritish Troops Occupy Territory Behind Defenses Believed ImpregnableVIMY RIDGE VICTORY IS ONE OF GREAT IMPORTANCEFirst Swift Rush is Over
But Assaulting Troops
Press Advantage

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, April 11.—Vigorously pressing their great offensive on the Arras-Lens front, the British have pushed further into German held territory behind the famous Hindenburg line.

Today's official statement from London reports the capture of the village and heights of Monchy Le Preux, nearly five miles southeast of Arras, and just north of the Arras-Cambrai main road.

Satisfactory progress along other sections of the fighting line is announced, one of the points taken being the village of La Bergere.

Apparently the first swift rush of the forceful offensive is over but the reports from correspondents indicate that the work of consolidating the German works was taken up speedily and done thoroughly while during the passage of this task there was no interruption of the pressure on the retreating Germans.
Already more than 11,000 prisoners and guns in excess of 100 many of their heavy pieces have been taken by General Haig's victorious troops.

The minimum has been effected in the sector of Vimy ridge the northern pivot of the Hindenburg line
now turned by the British where the German resistance was naturally stiffest in view of the importance of the commanding hill positions.
Nevertheless the British accounts
show further gains against the Germans there.

Brazil's decision to sever diplomatic relations with Germany has so far not been followed by any other South or Central American nation but advices from Rio Janeiro declare that similar action on the part of some other of the South American countries is expected in diplomatic circles here.

Dispatches from Argentine reports
the government announcing that it will support the action of the United States in reference to Germany.
Uruguay, however, has declared
her neutrality.

In the two days' fighting along the front from Lens to the southeast of Arras the Germans have suffered great losses in men and guns. More than 11,000 prisoners, among them 235 officers, have been taken and 100 guns, 60 trench mortars, and 163 machine guns have fallen into the hands of the British. Some of the larger guns are of 8-inch caliber.
The advance of the British over the entire front has been made to a depth of from two to six miles, the penetration being greatest east and southeast of Arras.

The Berlin official communication admits that two German divisions in the fighting near Arras Monday, suffered "considerable losses" in stubbornly resisting superior forces. The British and Russian forces report successes over the Turks Mesopotamia, and along the Caucasus front. The Russians operating against the Ottomans in Mesopotamia from the Khanikin district, near the Perso-Mesopotamian frontier, have captured the village of Kizil Robat, 80 miles northeast of Baghdad, and to the north of this region have driven back the Turks in the district of Banek, which lies about 100 miles east of Mosul.

FLYING CORPS IN FRANCE NOW UNDER
STARS AND STRIPES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, April 11.—It was decided today that the Lafayette flying squadron composed of Americans who have distinguished themselves at the front, will change from the French to the American military uniform and hereafter carry the American flag at the French front.
When the American aviators appear in the uniform of the United States army this country will have its first representation of the war as a belligerent.

After the adoption by congress of the war resolution the Americans hoisted the Stars and Stripes over their headquarters, but their official status was not changed.

In a semi-official communication issued in Paris last week it was said the Americans had destroyed 30 German airplanes during their service on the front in France.

The American squadron is well known to the Germans who have learned to avoid contact with it over the French lines.

FOOD PREPARATION

Tennessee conferred here today on
food preparation.

UNITED STATES WILL SEND SCORES OF AIRPLANES LIKE THIS TO WESTERN FRONT

One of the very latest models of U. S. aircraft and Brig. Gen. George O. Squier, who is in command of the army aerial forces.

For many months American airmen in France have been giving a good account of themselves, and it was recently announced that they had destroyed thirty German planes. These airmen fought under the French flag until a few days ago, when they exchanged the tri-color for the Stars and Stripes. It is likely that they will be joined this summer by scores of fellow Americans who will be sent to France by their government. The airplane shown above has just been adopted by the army, and has shown up extremely well in practice tests.

WOODMEN GO TO CINCINNATI FOR 1917 MEETING

The Woodmen of the World will finish their sessions this afternoon,
and the seventh biennial convention
of the Grand Camp of Ohio will adjourn to meet two years hence in Cincinnati, that city having been chosen as the next convention city without opposition.

A. J. Sindelar of Cleveland was elected today as the Head Consul,
there being three other candidates.
Gus Weigand of this city was elected Head Adviser, he being the only state officer elected without opposition. Wm. L. Rossow of Cleveland was elected Head Banker, and Herman Distelhorst of Columbus, Head Clerk. Eugene Miller of Elgin is the new Head Escort and Charles Westman of Cleveland Head Watchman.
J. E. Anderson of East Liverpool
will be Head Sentry and the Head
Managers and Delegates to Sovereign
Camp will be selected later today.
The newly elected officers will also be installed this afternoon, and the gavel will be turned over to Head Consul Sindelar, after which he will address the convention and then declare it adjourned to meet in Cincinnati.

The delegates were entertained
last night at a Smoker in K. of P.
Hall. This was arranged by W. J.
Koblenz, chairman, W. D. Langman, and C. F. Koblenz. The chairman is not a novice in the amusement business for he has served on minstrel committees and taken part in Elk minstrels and he therefore decided that the Smoker should take the form of a minstrel entertainment,
and it was highly enjoyable and entertaining.

The first part consisted of an overture by the orchestra under the direction of Prof. Howard Jackson, the singing of "Star Banged Banner" by the company and audience,
the opening "Honolulu, America Loves You," by the entire company,
and then vocal selections by Fred Cole, Stanley Shaw, Emil Lauten-
schlaeger, Clyde Cole, Harry Ingram and John Garrity, with a pretty number by Miss Ruth Ludwig, this city's famous child dancer, who passed roses among the audience
during the rendition of the song "I found You Among the Roses."

After an intermission the obo followed being fancy costume dances
by Little Ruth Ludwig, vocal selections by Mr. Frank Ewald, violin solos by Prof. Howard Jackson and wrestling exhibitions by some of the city's most clever mat artists.

The entertainment proved to be high class and the visitors were delighted and complimented Chairman Koblenz and his fellow co-workers
very highly.

This evening there will be a band concert from the balcony of the Wardman Hotel after which a parade will be given. The famous Buckeye band has been engaged for the occasion and the open air concert will start promptly at 6:30 o'clock.

A large photograph of the visiting delegates was made at noon today
in front of the K. of P. building.
There were 325 delegates in the picture.

Bromley Meetings Now in Full Swing; Auto Tour Over
County; Services at Shops

The first week day service of the Bromley meetings in the tabernacle
was held last night and was attended by a large crowd. The weather has not been favorable heretofore but conditions were improved yesterday
and the big building was comfortable.

Prior to the preaching service,
there was a spirited song service and the big chorus choir, led by Prof. C.
H. Wileand, showed the results of his earnest effort to get the proper visitor in the singing. While the meeting was announced for 7:30 o'clock, it was only a few minutes after seven when the director raised his baton
and started the song service.

Dr. Bromley's sermon last night was in the nature of a preliminary talk, paving the way for the future meetings at which he will preach.
His text was taken from the fourth verse of the 142d Psalm, the words of the text being "no man
cared for my soul."

Yesterday the first automobile
tour by members of the Bromley party was held and there were three religious services conducted by the party in different towns of the county. It was the first of a series of tours to be conducted during the next ten days. Johnstown was visited first and the meeting at that place was held at 1 o'clock. The

SEVEN BILLIONS
IN MEASURE FOR WAR PURPOSES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

financing bill, providing for $5,000, 000,000 in bonds and $2,000,000, 000 in treasury certificates, was Chairman Kitchen, introducing

and reporting the bill to the house, announced that it would be called

The bill authorizes a bond issue of $5,000,000,000, provides that not to exceed $2,000,000,000 from the proceeds of the bonds may be used in extending credits to foreign gov-

000,000 is to be used at home. It also authorizes an additional bond

Interest is not to exceed three and one-half per cent and the bill leaves the denominations of the bonds to the discretion of the secretary of the treasury.

BRITISH SPEED
WAS SURPRISE
TO GERMANSGuns Captured and Those Disabled Makes Artillery
Reply NegligibleGERMANS IN TRENCHES
WERE WITHOUT FOODCavalry Corps In a Sensational Charge Capture
Two Howitzers

(From a staff correspondent of the Associated Press.)

British Headquarters in France,
via London, April 11.—The speed and power of the British assault, in what will probably be known in history as the battle of Arras, seem to have thoroughly surprised the Germans. So much so in fact that their usual retaliatory artillery fire has been absolutely negligible in the last two days. This is partly due, of course, to the number of guns captured, to which must be added the number knocked out by the British artillery before the actual assault began. It is also due to the fact that the Germans have been too busy trying to get their remaining guns away from immediate danger to bother firing them at the enemy.

A trip over the newly taken lines
revealed a condition of trenches closely approximating those recently evacuated by the Germans in the valley of the Somme. Many dugouts remained with only damaged portals,
but the trenches, including all communication lines, have been uncertainly battered about.

So successful was the artillery barrier set up by the British back of the German lines that some of the German prisoners reported they had been without food supplies for four days.

The zest of offensive warfare could be felt in all parts of the British front today. Troops were swinging forward with hands playing gay tunes.

A cavalry corps had the unique distinction of capturing two big howitzers. They charged these guns in the open, killing gervase members of the crews before the others surrendered.

Thousands of German prisoners
could be seen along the roads today.
Some had little round caps and others were wearing the great coal scuttle steel helmet. Although the intense cold continues only a few had overcoats. They are a docile lot and somewhat surprised their captivity by carefully sorting themselves into their respective units before being registered and temporarily caged. Smaller cages were provided for the officers, four of the latter have been in a furious rage, ever since they were taken. They were in a forward observance post, they said and saw the infantry coming back from their front line but had no idea that they were actually retreating. Their anger was due to the failure of these troops to give the warning so that they too could flee.

MOB THREATENS
LIFE OF MAN WHO
CUT GIRL'S THROAT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, April 11.—Blain Snouref, 26, the Linworth farm hand who murdered his pretty 15 year old sweetheart, August Sickness Harding,
at Worthington by cutting her throat with a razor, probably will be given a preliminary hearing before the mayor of Worthington today.

Snouffer, who is being held in the county jail here, following his sensational arrest a few hours after the crime, is said to have confessed to Sheriff Slack his guilt. The arrested man narrowly escaped lynch at the hands of an angry mob which followed the sheriff to Snouffer's home, a few miles from Worthington, which is eight miles north of Columbus.

rested by a secret service operative who had been tampered to find out who had been meddling with the machinery of the press.

The small quantity of silver taken was not missed although he made money, the officers said, every night.
He had been in the government service for 23 years.

PLAN TO ORGANIZE A RED CROSS UNIT IN NEWARK SOON

It is planned to organize a Red Cross Unit in this city to work for the soldiers and sailors of our country just as soon as possible. Rev. Lewis P. Franklin, rector of Trinity church has written to headquarters at Washington asking for such information and help as are necessary to accomplish this purpose.

As soon as the detailed information is received, a meeting of the men and women of this city who are interested and who desire to become members, will be called and an organization effected.

Zanesville has already organized such a unit and representatives from Washington are now crystallizing the movement in Columbus.

SENATE URGES IMPORTANCE OF FOOD SUPPLIES

Washington, April 11.—Congress debated war plans Tuesday over a wide range but in the broadest generalities.

In the house most of the debate was devoted to emphasizing the necessity of realizing the importance of an adequate food supply and in the senate the debate turned principally on the question of universal service.

Selective conscription was opposed by several senators.

"I have very grave apprehension respecting this idea of conscription, as to whether it will appeal to the people of the United States," said Senator Gallinger, the republican leader. "I do not know, however, if we can raise a volunteer army unless we emulate Canada in paying our soldiers. We should tell our young men that we are not asking them to fight our battles for a paltry $15 a month. There ought to be a more liberal policy to encourage enlistments which have not been very satisfactory."

Senators Thomas, of Colorado and Vandaman, of Mississippi, democrats, also favored increasing the pay of soldiers and advocated voluntary recruiting.

As a means to stimulate recruiting the senate agreed to an amendment to the army appropriation bill offered by Senator Hitchcock authorizing the secretary of war to accept gratuitous services of a publicity agency and also space from newspapers and magazines for advertising for recruits.

Another amendment authorized the secretary to pay for advertising services and space.

FOODSTUFFS ARE STILL SOARING AND SKY SEEMS LIMIT

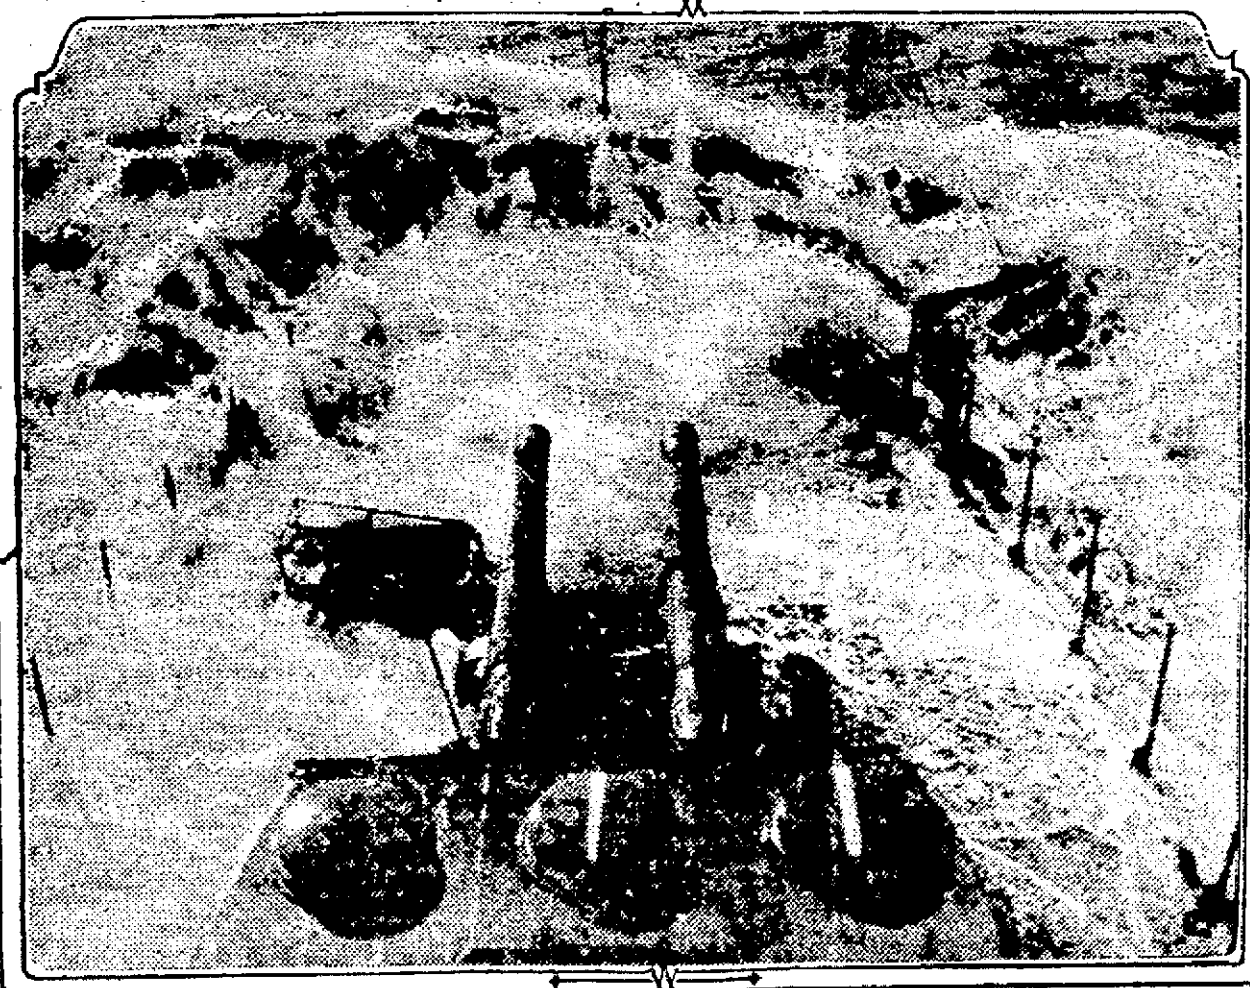

The sky seems to be the limit in the price of foodstuffs, for no matter what comes, it seems only to increase the price of things edible.

Wheat reached the high water mark of years Monday when it was $2.15 and while it fell about 5 cents today the relapse is not promised as permanent. The price of sugar is still soaring and flour is pushing it for first place in the race. Vegetables and canned goods are also increasing in price.

ALIEN ENEMIES TO GET SMALL CHANCE

Cleveland, April 11.—Assistant district attorney Kavanaugh after a conference with federal Judge Westenhaver Tuesday announced that persons arrested as "alien enemies" will not even be given an opportunity to prove they are not alien enemies. Suspected persons will be arrested and detained at the discretion of U. S. Marshal Lapp without hearing.

U. S. monitor Tallahassee, submarine mother ship, laboring through heavy seas.

The waves breaking over the low deck and turrets of this submarine mother ship gives the impression that the vessel is partly submerged and makes that portion of the vessel, at least, take on the appearance of an undersea craft. When the vessel arrived at its destination a few days ago traces of salt on the stack bore evidence of the storm through which she had passed.

NEMESIS OF MOTOR THIEVES SPEAKS HERE ON MONDAY

At the open meeting of the Newark Automobile Club to be held in Trinity Church Parish House next Monday evening, Richard Lee of Cleveland will speak.

Mr. Lee was president of the state organization last year. He was personally responsible for knocking the notorious International Auto Supply Co. of Buffalo, N. Y. out of business and sending its officers to the penitentiary. This act alone saved millions of dollars to the motorists of Ohio. Mr. Lee also headed the movement in Cleveland against automobile thieves. More than forty of them, operating in this state and Michigan were rounded up and brought to justice. Over $100,000 worth of automobiles were recovered. Men of high standing in the community were involved and taken into court.

At the meeting on Monday evening to be held at 7:30 o'clock, reports for the past year of the local club's activities will be made, and plans for the coming year discussed. Officers will also be elected. It will be a smoker and open meeting to which all automobile owners are invited. If you own and drive a car, remember the club is working for your interest. Come and help make it a success by doing your share.

MRS. PUTNAM IS SERIOUSLY HURT IN OAKLAND, CALIF.

On Monday Mrs. James Wiley of West Locust street, received word that her sister, Mrs. Rufus Putnam, of Oakland, California, who formerly resided in West Locust street, this city, had met with a serious accident. On last Monday evening Mrs. Putnam, while taking a walk with her husband slipped on a piece of orange peel and fell breaking her right hip and injuring her knee very badly. She was at once removed to a hospital where an X-ray examination was made to determine the extent of her injuries, after which she was placed in a plaster paris cast. Both Mr. and Mrs. Putnam have the sympathies of their many friends in this city where they lived for a number of years before leaving for California about four years ago.

RUSH FOR LICENSES HITS SNAG; STOP WORK OF SLACKERS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, April 11.—Obstacles were placed Tuesday in the way of the parade to the marriage license bureau, where since the beginning of war with Germany the number of daily applications has reached an unprecedented figure.

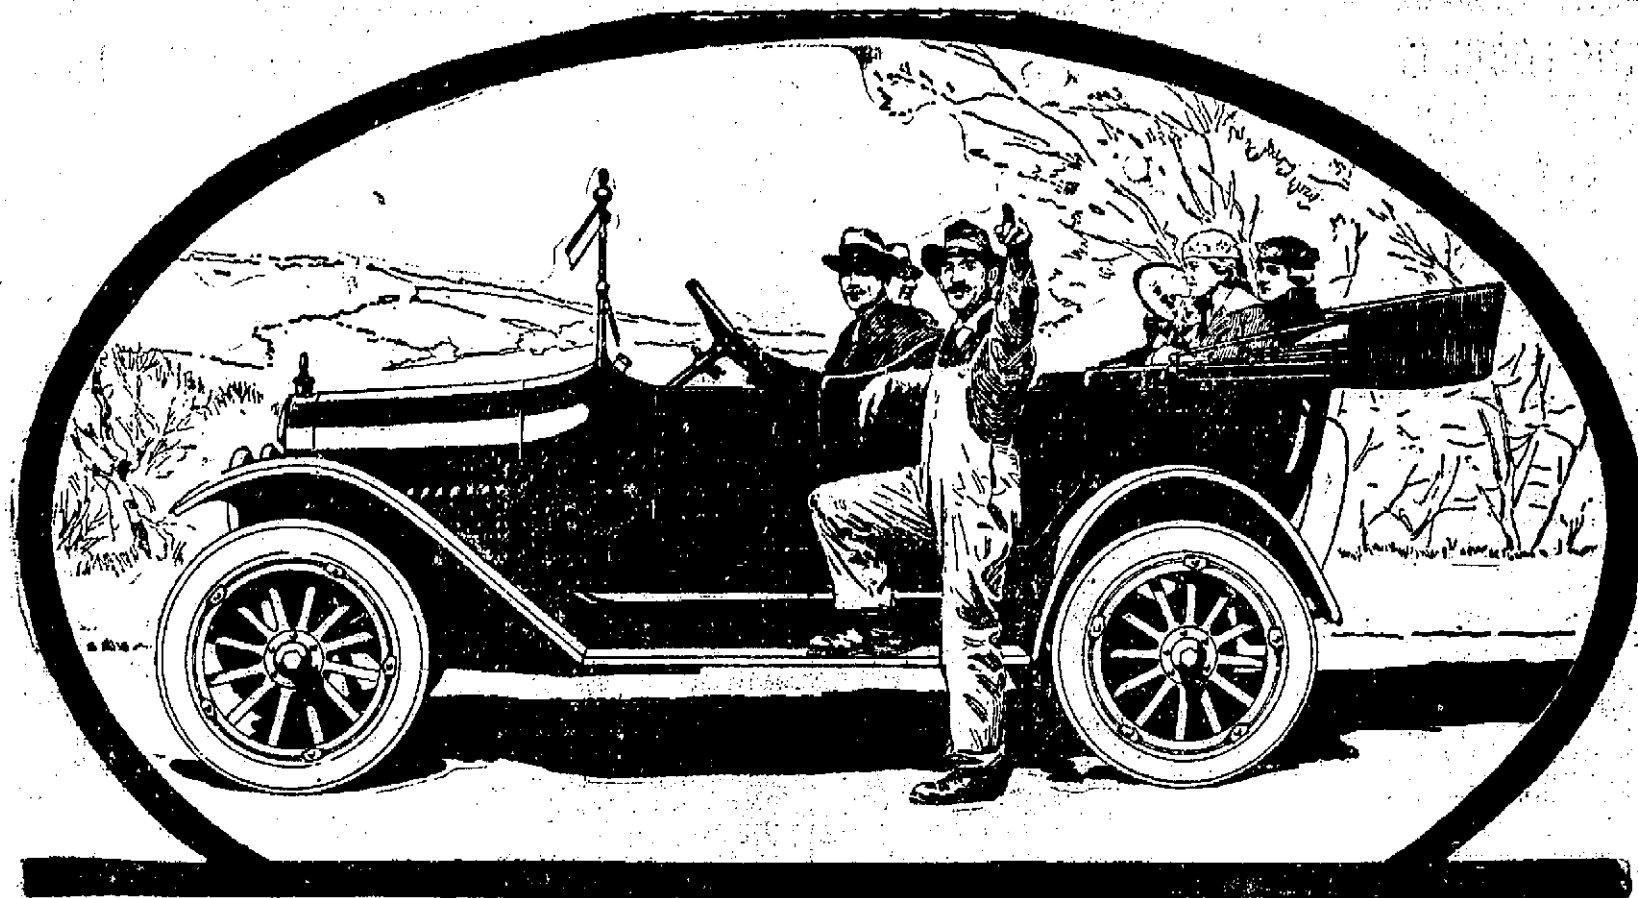

Observing that 1,116 of the 1,250 applicants Monday were of military age, county clerk Sweitzer eliminated his emergency force of twenty clerks, leaving the normal force of four.

"Let 'em wait," said Mr. Sweitzer. The second obstacle was a plan to place recruiting offices in the building where clear-eyed young men in uniform were to ask each applicant the direct question:

"Are you going to side step your duty?"

Prices Increased May 1st Order Now and Order Quick

We have expected a price increase right along and only the immense quantity being produced will enable us to sell at the May 1st price—we, of course, have no assurances that further increases in price will not be necessary.

Everything that goes into the Maxwell is the best—this we do know and can prove.

The steel is the finest that money can buy—the motor—no finer, no tougher, no steadier can be built according to our experience and the steeper the hills and the tougher the roads the more the Maxwell seems to like them.

Our April allotment will be delivered to us at the old price. That's agreed and that's fair to us and we are going to be fair to our customers.

—But—after May 1st, we can't buy a Maxwell for a penny less than the new price and we shan't sell you one for a penny less than $665.

Come in—study this car—see if we are right or wrong about it.

When we say biggest value, we mean it and we can prove it by any known tests or standards.

We put it up to you to judge after you consider these features.

Maxwell Style Same as Highest Priced Cars

The Maxwell lines are pleasing to the eye. The design conforms exactly to the prevailing style, as illustrated by any number of high priced motor cars.

Comfort to the Point of Luxury

The Maxwell car is roomy. It seats five passengers in comfort. There is plenty of leg room in front and rear. The long semi-elliptic Maxwell springs and the soft, extra-deep upholstery make riding easy.

150,000 Miles Not Unusual

There are Maxwell cars in daily use which have already run over 150,000 miles. Think of it—more than 20 years of average driving! There are Maxwell cars in the mountains and in sections where there are rough roads or no roads, that have gone 50,000 miles—50,000 miles that would wreck and tear most cars to pieces.

The World's Endurance Champion

This record was set by a five-passenger Maxwell stock touring car, by running for 22,022 miles—44 days and nights—ETNAQUIT.

ROOSEVELT LAYS PLAN FOR ARMY BEFORE WILSON

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, April 11.—Colonel Roosevelt called on President Wilson at the White House Tuesday and was received in the executive mansion.

He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth.

Colonel Roosevelt laid his plan for raising a division of troops for foreign service before the president and said afterwards that he had been received with the "utmost courtesy and consideration."

After his talk with the president, Colonel Roosevelt made it clear that his plan was not designed to interfere in any way with the administration's plan for raising an army.

When Colonel Roosevelt left the White House he waved his hat enthusiastically to a large group of waiting correspondents and shutting off questions began to dictate a statement.

In the midst of his statement, Col. Roosevelt turned to Secretary Tumulty and said:

"If I say anything I shouldn't, be sure to censor it. I'm ready under orders."

Colonel Roosevelt slapped Tumulty on the back and remarked he might get him. He talked informally for several minutes about his plans and the readiness of men to respond to a call for service but would not add to his dictated statement.

BILLY SUNDAY.

The criticism that is most frequently hurled at Billy Sunday, the great evangelist, is that he accepts large sums of money for his services. The fact that the contributions are voluntary makes no difference, there are many who accuse him of commercializing evangelism. It was therefore something of a bomb that Mr. Sunday dropped at the opening of his greatest campaign in New York City the other day when he said that he would not accept a cent for his services but would give every dollar contributed above the actual expenses to the Y. M. C. A. working among the soldiers and the American Red Cross.

Mr. Sunday favors the vigorous prosecution of the war. He has announced his enmity to Prussian terrorism and has expressed a willingness to have a recruiting station opened at the New York tabernacle where he will talk to 20,000 people twice a day during his three months' campaign.

Speaking of Mr. Sunday's declaration to give his services to the cause of America, the Pittsburgh Gazette Times says:

"That a man of such wide influence is on the side of humanity's cause as represented by the United States in this war is gratifying. He will be the means of stirring New York to its fullest efforts toward practical preparation; more than this, he may be able to awaken extravagant, pleasure-loving people who make this metropolis their mecca to a realization of the necessity for quiting waste and prodigality. If Mr. Sunday can penetrate the cynicism of New York—and by disclaiming personal regard for the entering wedge—he may be able to shame wasters into assuming their responsibility to the country in time of war."

An evangelistic campaign in the nation's greatest city while we are entering war is propitious and especially so when it is headed by a man noted for his ability to impress people in the mass. Mr. Sunday threw a bomb into the camp of the opposition by his patriotic opening address and should follow it up by further attacks in his inimitable style.

A GREAT MEETING.

A remarkable meeting was held in the Bromley tabernacle last Monday night. The size of the crowd surprised all expectations, every seat and every foot of standing room being taken and many hundreds of people were crowded away. The great crowd remained nearly three hours until the close of the program and listened attentively to the stirring patriotic addresses, to the martial music and witnessed with pride the impressive transfer of arms from the gallant Old Guard to the boys who are now ready to go to the front in defense of the flag.

The meeting was concluded by the unanimous adoption of resolutions pledging loyalty to the President and expressing admiration for his leadership, his patience and devotion to duty and promising that the people of this community will do their full duty in this critical period of the nation's history. It was indeed a great meeting.

OHIO IN CONGRESS.

While there is evidence to indicate that un-American sentiment has not disappeared from the halls of congress, it is a matter of no little pride to the people of the Buckeye State that both of the Senators from Ohio, Atlee Pomerene and Warren G. Harding, are standing firmly behind the President and that every Ohio member of the House, save one is equally loyal to our national leader. Our own Seventeenth district congressman, William A.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

ESTABLISHED IN 1820.

Ashbrook, may be depended upon to represent faithfully the people of this district and nation. Mr. Ashbrook's record is without tarnish and he may be depended upon to go through this crisis in our nation's history ever mindful of and faithful to Old Glory.

The people who need most to observe Straighten Up Week are not the aged veterans bent over by rheumatism, but the school youngsters who get the habit of flopping languidly over their desks.

After urging the United States to turn the other cheek to Germany, that Boston Pacifist wheeled around and hit Senator Lodge one under the ear. But Mr. Lodge took care of him.

Many people won't work in the garden mornings because they will have plenty of time in the evening, and they won't work there evenings because they will be so much fresher mornings.

No Easter egg rolling on the White House grounds this year. Not so much perhaps on account of the war crisis, as that such inordinate display of wealth was not considered good taste at this time.

While un-American talk is irritating to the last degree, the really dangerous spies and plotters keep their mouths shut and look quite inoffensive.

There are some people who can't support the United States government in this crisis, but they don't seem to want to remove to any other country.

The United States having declared war, it is up to those who love the Kaiser better than Uncle Sam, to betake themselves to more congenial surroundings.

Why say we are unprepared for war when we have been playing football, celebrating Fourth of July, and speeding automobiles assiduously all these years?

Uncle Sam has concluded that whereas it is fairly safe sitting up on top of the pick fence, it is exceedingly uncomfortable.

Whenever you meet three different men, you find six different opinions as to what should be done about the war.

It is surprising how many people with big feet don't feel comfortable until they get a conspicuous pair of white shoes on.

Even the fellow who enlisted for fear of what people will say if he doesn't, may make an excellent soldier.

Monday night's mass meeting demonstrated conclusively that the people of Newark are loyal.

The Pacifists propose to have peace even if they have to lick everyone in sight.

April is a month when once in so often Uncle Sam has a habit of going gunning.

MONEY FOR THE WAR.

(Chicago Journal.)

In raising money to prosecute the war, the United States must not saddle too much of the burden on future generations. So far as is possible, we must pay as we go; and the means for making tremendous payments are ready at hand.

A tax of 12 1/2 per cent has been imposed on munitions profits. That tax should be doubled, at least, and extended to all war profits.

The income tax exemption should be lowered until all unearned income above $1000 per year and all earned incomes of $2000 per year pay a share into the national treasury. Also, the surtax on the gigantic incomes which are a menace to the social welfare of the country should be enormously increased.

The inheritance tax should be made heavier in every way. The Journal holds that this is the best tax ever devised; the fairest, the surest, the cheapest to collect, the least detrimental to industry and thrift. Moreover, a swinging inheritance tax levied now would catch a number of bloated fortunes which, for the protection of society, ought to be broken up. Go the limit on the inheritance tax.

DINING AND WINING.

Even in the shadow of national peril, the high life continues to eat, drink, and be merry. The New York Society of Restaurateurs figure that their business put out over $700,000,000 last year. In our greater cities money flows in unstarved stream for food and drink, largely the latter, with the accompaniments of high cost dancers and vaudeville artists.

A portion of this legitimate restaurant business, but much of it is mere dissipation and display and spurge. The amount spent for wasteful entertaining in New York city alone would equip a great army and it would pay off the national debt in a year or two.

All this extravagance would seem in poor taste even in peace time, when the money might do so much good in relieving misfortune and settling worthy young people on the road to self support. How much worse it is in time of war, when suffering peoples are starving, when wounded men are dying for lack of good hospital facilities, and when our own people are in need of war equipment for their own defense. It would seem as if the Nabobs and Croesuses should realize this situation and cut out this folly.

A GERMAN REVOLUTION IS UNLIKELY.

(New York Journal of Commerce.)

It would be a mistake to assume that events are likely to shape themselves in Germany as they have in Russia. The Russian revolution was carried to a successful issue by the very classes that in Germany supply the strongest defenders of absolutism—namely, the industrialists and wealthy middle class and the intellectuals and mercantile enterprises of the empire. Today Germany's representative industrialists are as much interested in imperialism and expansion as are the men of the military conservative party. This much appears to be certain, however, that the national unity and enthusiasm which marked the outbreak of the war have disappeared and that the disappointment became great and general when it was demonstrated that Germany had embarked not upon a brief, glorious and highly profitable war, but upon an unending struggle. In short, the unity of the German nation is no longer a unity born of enthusiastic hope, but of fear. The German government, wielding an allpowerful army and police, has so far been able to stifle any really serious expression of popular discontent. But it is hardly open to question that millions of Germans believe no longer that Germany was forced into the war by her enemies, and it seems equally certain that millions of Germans are cursing the Emperor and his Government in their hearts. Should great defeats be added to those which Germany has already suffered, and should misery and starvation keep up their present rate of increase, all the conditions of revolution will manifestly be present throughout the German empire, and only competent leadership will be needed for its successful organization.

CZAR AND KAISER.

It seems strange that two words so different in sound and spelling as Czar and Kaiser are the same. Both are but changes made in the course of nearly 2000 years in the word Caesar.

All the Roman emperors took their title from the first emperor, our old friend of school-boy days—Julius Caesar. When Charlemagne founded the Holy Roman Empire and was crowned emperor, he took the name of Caesar, or in the Frankish form Kaiser. When the modern German Empire was established in 1871, the German emperor, William I, grandfather of the present Kaiser, took the same title—Kaiser.

Similarly the rulers of the eastern empire at Constantinople, successors to the old Roman empire, called themselves Caesar. Every petty autocrat or prince in the territory surrounding the eastern empire, copied the custom and called himself Caesar or Czar. In the course of time, however, the greatest of these Czar of Muscovy, conquered the other Czar until he was the sole, or practically the sole ruler called Czar. However, the King of Bulgaria, when a few years ago he had himself crowned as King, took the title Czar. The Encyclopaedia Britannica tells us that while Czar is "the title commonly given both abroad and in Russia," his official title is "Emperor and Autocrat." The title White Czar or Great White Czar, the Britannica further tells us, also applied to the Russian Emperor and, "commonly quoted as though it had a poetic and mystical meaning, is a translation of a Mongol word meaning independent; that is free from all obligation or personal service."

THE BELIEF IN CHARMS.

(Pittsburgh Gazette Times.)

The cost of potatoes recently caused the humorous remark that the superstitious would feel the pinch from being unable to afford their charms against rheumatism. This allusion to the custom of carrying a potato in the pocket may have sounded ridiculous to younger generation, who sensibly run more to doctors than to charms, but reliance upon this and other charms against disease is dying a slow death. School teachers can testify to the numbers of curious things they sometimes find tied around children's necks to ward off various afflictions. Some, it is true, are nothing more than disinfectants, but others are charms, pure and simple. As charms have been practiced from the childhood of the race and as some peoples are less advanced than the leading elements of our population, it is no wonder faith in objects and rites still lingers. Among some of our foreign-born and Negroes, the beliefs are still manifested in curious practices.

Edward Lovett, of the Folk Lore Society of Great Britain, has made an interesting collection of charms. Among them is a sheep's heart pierced with pins and nails to break the spell of a black witch and recommended by an old woman who practiced witchcraft in London as late as 1908. A pair of horseshoes, covered with blue and red cloth, hung up beside a bed is thought to relieve the sleeper of nightmare. A necklace of blue beads was obtained among people who believed it a protection against bronchitis; red beads and coral are thought to relieve sore throat. Mr. Lovett found other persons who tied a tooth in a small bag around the neck of a teething child to relieve it of pain. He gives the recipe as having many followers and shows a specimen carried by one rheumatic man for years. Another charm against the same disease is a bottle filled with mercury and covered with leather.

As Cecil Sharp has found old English folk songs among the unschooled mountaineers of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, showing how this lore followed the people through generations in their movements to and across this country, so it is possible to find in the United States beliefs in charms identical with those held in England, Scotland and Ireland. Perhaps a search might disclose a lingering trust in witches, good and bad, and faith in charms against them as primitive as that of some of the odd folk described by Thomas Hardy.

ALASKA SEMI-CENTENNIAL.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

Fifty years ago the United States bought Alaska from Russia which had held it by right of discovery for nearly 300 years. There are Russian maps of the Alaskan coast dating as far back as 1579, though the first Russian settlement was not made until 1783. In 1825, the boundary between Russian and British territory was defined by treaty and Russia sold the territory, in the possession of which she was thus secured, to the United States in 1867, for $7,200,000, less than one-third of the amount paid to Denmark the other day, for three little islands in the West Indies.

Secretary of State Seward was the chief advocate of the purchase, and it has been generally supposed that he took that attitude because he foresaw the great value of Alaska to this country. But that is not likely. He had no means of knowing the hidden resources of the territory, and it is far more probable that the purchase was a political maneuver against Great Britain. The colonies of the Dominion were then small, but promising, and Seward conceived the notion of blocking the British progress to the Pacific. Russia was willing, and so the deal was made.

It was a grab game in the parceling out of the territory to the world and was marked by the very suspicion and rivalry in ownership and power that we are now hoping to put out of the world, on the basis of justice to all. It was most fortunate for the United States, since it has added immensity to the republic's natural resources which have now been conserved for the plain people, as distinguished from the exploiters. It is a singular fact, too, that not after 50 years, the United States and Russia, the countries making that deal against Great Britain, are now fighting side by side with her for the liberation of the world from dynasties and distrust.

COLORADO'S PATRIOTISM.

(Denver Post.)

A shouting, thundering, roaring mass of men and women leaped to their feet in the Auditorium last night. Ten thousand five hundred there, their eyes gleaming, their faces red from a sudden rush of blood, their hands waving, their throats becoming hoarse with their rasping, roaring cries, their whole beings aflame with the fires of enthusiasm, 10,500 men and women and children, shouting forth the answer to the question of Colorado's patriotism, sending out a message to the rest of the United States that all is forgotten in this State save that America needs men and money and power to fight and to win the struggle into which it is to be plunged with a blood-maddened monarchy, and that from Colorado will come the last ounce of man power, the last ounce of gold, the last ounce of strength that a patriotic-blooded, a country-loving, liberty-adoring State can give.

APRIL IS OUR WAR MONTH.

(Columbus Citizen.)

April is America's war month. Every big war in which the United States has been involved either began in April or the foundation for it was laid in that month.

The war of the revolution began April 19, 1775, with the battle of Lexington and Concord.

It was on April, 1812, that congress put the embargo on British shipping which resulted in war on June 18.

The Black Hawk war, this nation's greatest conflict with the Indians, began April 21, 1831.

War with Mexico was declared April 24, 1846.

The civil war began with the attack on Fort Sumpter, April 12, 1861.

War with Spain was declared April 21, 1898.

And April 1917, sees America at war with Germany. Americans may get some comfort out of the fact that we have never been licked.

MME PETROVA.

Not only is lovely Olga Petrova a drama and screen star of great magnitude, but she is a poet as well. A poem of classic beauty from the pen of Mme Petrova, evidently written for one of her own little ones. To a Child Who Inquires, comes in record form from the Columbia Company. And it is declared by Petrova herself, in the beautifully modulated tones, as vibrant to every shade of emotion, that never fails to thrill her audiences. Although of Russian birth, Mme. Petrova speaks English with a distinctness of enunciation that many Americans would do well to emulate.

This lovely classic suggests an ideal way to unfold life's sacred meaning to the sensitive child mind.

Spirit of the Press

Their Day Has Passed.

If Mr. Roosevelt intends to command an expeditionary army, made up of new Rough Riders, or Roosevelt followers, he will have to enlist under some other flag than the Stars and Stripes. There will be but one army; it will be the American army. Independent commands are inconsistent with modern warfare, and the day of the Ellsworth Zouaves, the Louisiana Tigers and the Roosevelt Rough Riders has passed. —Louisville Post.

Preventing War.

The United States' getting in the war will serve one great end and that is, it will become one of the parties to arrange the terms of peace. The uppermost question of the present conflict is how to prevent another war. That is really what this country is in it for. If democracy wins in the present war the chances of another are very remote. The people are not apt to fight one another. It is only where a king or some autocracy interferes that there is a war. The world will stand for peace after this conflict is ended, and this country will be the leading supporters of that peace. —Ohio Journal.

Singable Song.

The New York Evening Post says: "The wild rumor that 200 persons at Ocean City sang America from memory is explained; they were school teachers." It has never yet been rumored, even, that 200 persons could sing "The Star Spangled Banner" from memory—still less than 200 persons in a body could stretch their throats to cover the notes of the song. We Americans have a national song that nobody sings willingly. It would be a pleasing thing if one of the results of this war, for America, were the production of a simple, singable, originable national hymn. —Buffalo Express.

Up to the People.

It's up to the people now. The present year is going to be dry as dry can be by process of law. We shall soon see whether it is the medicine for what ails us. If it is, then both prohibition and the liquor people will know it's on the books for all time. If it isn't, then we can all approach another solution of the problem without illusions, without mistaking windmills for castles, or men of straw for predatory bandits. And so get something that will work. If it will, we've got it early. If it won't, the sooner we'll find it out and the sooner we'll get to what will be the right way to handle it. —Macon Telegraph.

Did You Know

That the Dickens Fellowship began its existence in London in October, 1902? This society is a world-wide league of "English-speaking men and women whose purpose it is to exemplify the teachings of Charles Dickens and to cultivate and diffuse the spirit which pervades his writings—the spirit of innocent festivity and mirth, of religion without bigotry, of charity without coldness, of universal philanthropy and human kinship. The object and aims of the Fellowship are: "To knit together in a common bond of friendship lovers of that great master of humor and pathos, Charles Dickens. To spread the love of humanity, which is the keynote of all his work. To take such measures as may be expedient to remedy or ameliorate those existing social evils which would have appealed so strongly to the heart of Charles Dickens, and to help in every possible direction the cause of the poor and the oppressed. To assist in the preservation and purchase of buildings and objects associated with his name and mentioned in his works. To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them." The Fellowship is open to all. BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

The college has a magnificent wireless station, one of the greatest in the state of Ohio. Our Boys and Girls

Wax paper, paper napkins, paper plates and drinking cups are handy additions to the school luncheon box and may be thrown away after use. And if the child is given a package of paper she may wash and wipe her knife, fork and spoon and leave them in her desk, and come home empty handed so far as her luncheon outfit is concerned.

If the child eats a good breakfast and is to have a hearty and satisfying dinner, a light luncheon is quite sufficient, though it is well to have it as nourishing as possible. A bowl of good mayonnaise and a bottle of heavy French dressing should be on hand all the time, so that there will be no delay when it is needed, and it keeps perfectly in cold weather.

Laughing Nature's Tonic.
A hearty laugh is Nature's tonic for beauty. Practice it then with all your heart. Don't let a day go by without indulging in this wonderful form of relaxation.

Laughing is the cheapest medicine in the world, and the most beautifying. All the visits to a vanity parlor in the world will do you no good if you come away with a stern, cold face and set jaws.

A good laugh simulates the circulation and stirs sluggish veins to activity. Its vibration seems to force new life into the very springs of our beings.

If you were to stop and figure up the number of times that you have indulged in a good hearty laugh you would be surprised to find that they are very few. Practice it as a duty if you cannot laugh spontaneously at first.

Relax your face muscles, loosen up the cords of your heart, and burst forth in a peal of musical gaiety.

Laugh and the world laughs with you, weep and you weep alone. Remember.

The Doctor's Son.—"Huh! Your baby brother ain't got no teeth." The Dentist's Son.—"Well, what of it? I guess my Pop can make him some."

ULTRA MILLINERY.

How the Chinese Idea is Coloring the New Headgear.

This season seems to have brought with it two very different and distinct styles of hats, one in the usual colors and the other a strong Chinese note which dominates everything and produces most weird but wonderful effects.

In the first class there is a hat somewhat small in shape, with round, high crown and narrow brim, turned down. This hat is entirely of soft peach colored crepe. Directly in the front are two round, flat ornaments meant to represent flowers. One is of crepe and the other of satin. Both are pink, but one is slightly deeper in color than the satin one.

On either side of the flowers are leaves made of twisted loops of panne velvet, held in place with tiny invisible stitches. It is a very sweet and dainty hat and one which any home milliner can copy, for the flat flowers are made exactly like flat cardboard pincushions covered with satin or velvet, but it would be better to substitute buckram for cardboard.

After the circles are covered with the material buttonhole stitch around the edge with heavy silk of the same color, making the stitches a quarter of an inch long and the same distance apart.

The wonderful silks used to trim these hats are often dull in color, with here and there a truly oriental design embroidered or printed in the most blazing colors.

A hat will have a crown covered with silk as described and a plain upper brim and the under brim of some soft color near the face and an all over silk pattern near the edge, three entirely different materials—different in texture, design and color—all on one hat, yet in perfect harmony of color.

The conservative woman may not look upon these hats with favor, but sooner or later, being a woman, she will succumb to the charm of these wonderful oriental effects, which are chiefly Chinese in character.

Tassels still demand attention, even on hats. A hat of dull blue straw trimmed with black silk, with here and there a blue, green and gold motif, had a long tassel extending from the center of the crown down over the brim. This tassel was fastened to an odd cord affair partly made of ribbon and partly of straw. It started from the center of a stiff little upright ruffle of black ribbon on the crown, and near the end where the black and gold tassel was attached was an odd tricolored carved bead.

CORRECT FOR SPRING.

The Kind of Useful Suit Every Maiden Needs.

Black and tan wool checkerboard plaids make this modish suit cut finger tip length coat, sash belt and close.

THE TRIM ONE.

ly plaited skirt. Black buttons close it, and a black velvet collar adds chic. The hat is a black chip trimmed with tan ribbon.

Capes of Marabou.

Marabou capes similar to the fur capes of the winter will be worn this spring. They are admirable as accompaniments of the modish straight little one piece frocks. These capes are of white or brown marabou in various styles, and they reach to the hips. There will also be smaller models fashioned in two tones. For instance, there may be a collar and yoke of white marabou finished with a deep border of white feathers striped with gray, or perhaps there will be little tufts of snowy ostrich on a marabou foundation.

Black and white speckled feathers make an effective edging to a plain white boa, the ends of which have enormous tassels of feathers.

The man who has greatness thrust upon him puts up a weak defense.

Declines were limited to fractions excepting a loss of Sheffield which broke 1 1/2 points.

General irregularity followed the initial rise, steel and associated shares losing about half their gains and belatedly and Hudson forfeiting practically all its recovery with variable exceptions in other lines and the pronounced activity was in specialties and pool issues comprising the war groups. Shippers held their early advance and Wilson Trucking rose 3 1/2, for Ohio Gas and 5 for National Biscuit. Trading divided to extremely moderate proportions at midday. The bond market was calm, making further upward progress while various issues of various descriptions were substantially lower and United States coupon 2's yielded 3/4 of a point.

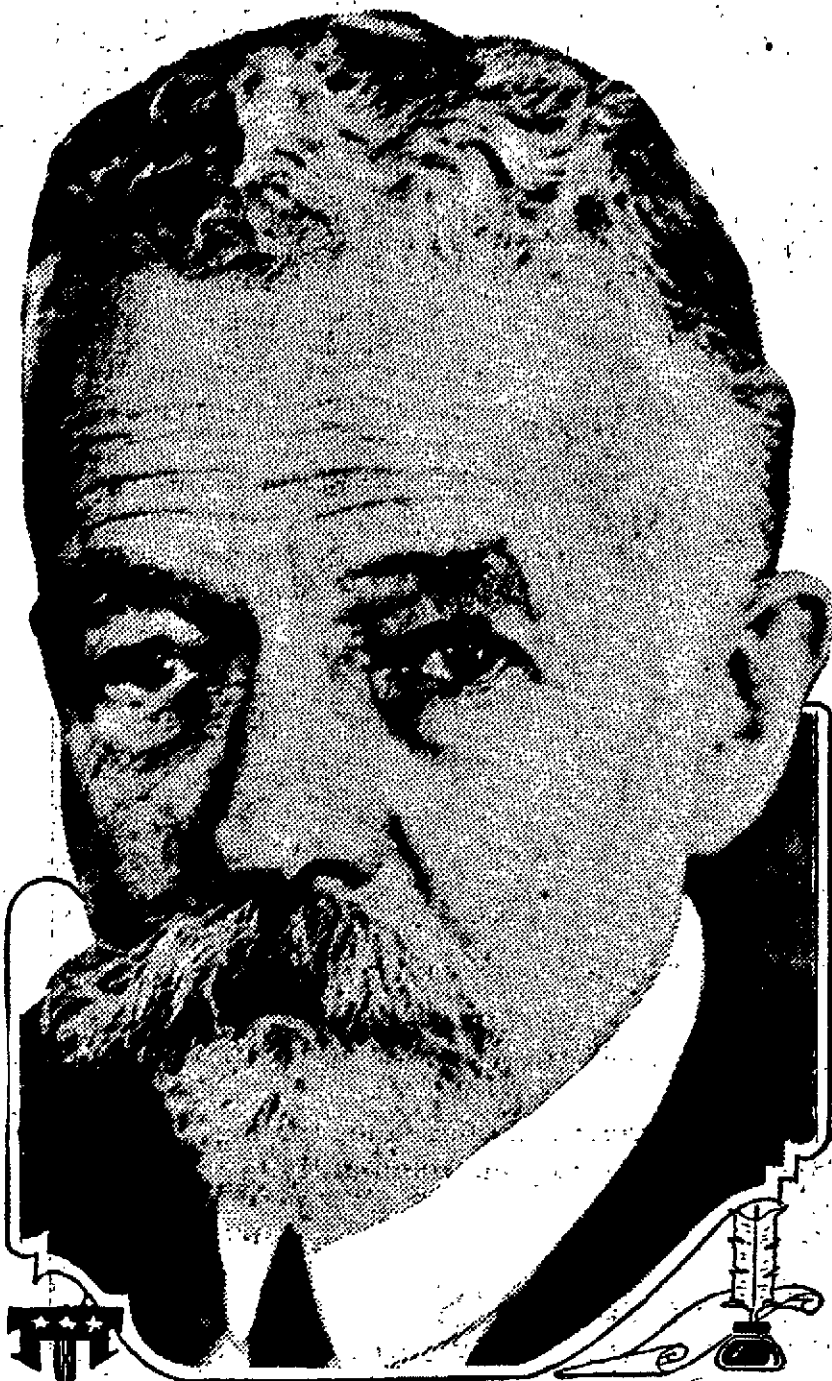

Steels and equipments attained to highest levels in the active final hour, rising more moderately. The closing was strong.

Special issues, mainly those of the war class, registered material advances in today's market investment issues, however, showing further irregularity. Sales were estimated at 50,000 shares.

FLAGS

Citizen Legion Paragraphs of Information About Flags—Things That Every Intelligent Citizen and Resident Should Know.

(BY MAJOR F. G. STEELE.)

Founder and Commander of The Citizen Legion. Eight Years on National Staff, G. A. R., as Patriotic Instructor for Ohio. Served Two Years in Civil War, and Five Years as Captain in Ohio National Guard. Thirty-five Years a Teacher in the Schools of Ohio.

8—But few know the correct, or legal, name of our National Flag and of what material it is made. Except by inference, our flag was never legally named.

Three resolutions of congress originated it, they are:

First—The Act of June 14, 1777, which reads:

"Resolved, That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field representing a new constellation."

It will be observed that its shape, size, arrangement of stars and the position of the stripes are not mentioned. This caused some confusion. At first some flags were made with vertical stripes, and the arrangement of the stars differed.

Note that by inference the above originating resolution made the legal name of our flag "The Flag of the Thirteen United States."

Also note that the material of which the flag was made was color only.

The material on which our flag may be made is not designated. The question may arise, "Can a person be legally punished for desecrating or refusal to salute an illegal but similar flag?"

Second Flag Act—In 1794 Congress passed an act making alterations in the Flag of the United States.

Be it enacted, etc., That from and after the first day of May, 1795, the flag of the United States be fifteen stripes, alternate red and white, and that the union be fifteen stars, white in a blue field. This was our national emblem for twenty-three years and was carried by Commodore Perry on Lake Erie, used by Jackson at New Orleans and inspired Francis Scott Key to write the "Star Spangled Banner."

10—Third Flag Act. The final act changing the flag was passed in April, 1818, it reads as follows:

An act to establish the flag of the United States.

"Sec. 1—Be it enacted, etc., That from and after the fourth day of July next, the flag of the United States be thirteen horizontal stripes, alternate red and white; that the Union have twenty stars, white in a blue field. Sec. 2—And be it further enacted, That on the admission of every new state into the Union, one star be added to the union of the flag, and that such addition shall take effect on the fourth of July next, succeeding such admission. Approved April 4, 1818."

Today there are 48 stars in the flag of the United States. The stars should be placed in six horizontal rows of eight stars each.

Don't Let Soap Spoil Your Hair

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mul-sified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps of anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather; cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

NEW YORK TIMES-NEWS SERVICE FOR GAZETTE TIMES READERS

The Pittsburgh Gazette Times takes great pleasure in announcing that it has just completed arrangements with the publishers of The New York Times, whereby the full news service of that newspaper will be received by the daily and Sunday Gazette Times over a special leased wire from The Times office in New York.

The New York Times is a strong Democratic newspaper and an ardent supporter of President Wilson. It is just such a newspaper as the average reader demands. With this unexcelled news service, together with the present facilities of The Gazette Times, readers of this paper can be assured of the best in news.

The news columns of a real newspaper should at all times deal in facts, not fancies. Especially is this the case at a time like the present when history is in the making and events which will shape the destinies of the world are occurring daily. Now is no time for sensationalism. The Gazette Times does not believe that its readers either like or deserve to be fooled. It has arranged for a New York Times service in preference to any other because it is convinced that the present day American prefers to read what really happens (even though it may not always be very exciting) rather than to be fed upon reports of imaginary occurrences whose only claim to recognition is that they occasionally call for official denial.

PLAN FOR MEATLESS DAYS BRINGS DOWN PRICES ON FOODS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, April 11.—J. Ogden Armour's suggestion of meatless days and government control of foodstuffs was said to have influenced a sensational break in prices on the board of trade at the opening Tuesday. Part of the initial loss was subsequently recovered. Wheat declined 5 cents, and provisions from 55c to 15c.

May wheat which sold at $2.15 last Saturday added five cents to Monday's decline by dropping to $2.42 on early sales. July sold at $1.59 and Sept. at $1.65 1-2. July corn declined 5c to $1.22. July pork which closed Monday at $37.35 a barrel, declined $1.55. July lard dropped $1.50 from the previous final figures of $29.50. July ribs lost 55c.

Hog prices reached a new high record today when choice heavies sold at $16.50, an advance of $1.50 in a little more than a week.

AUDITORIUM.

Last Night's Show.

Selwin & Company presented their laughable farce company to a fair-sized audience at the Auditorium last evening. The play, by Avery Hopwood, was one of the notable New York successes last season with a record run at a Broadway theatre. It was a return engagement, having appeared here last election night. The company was well balanced and it gave a very creditable and enjoyable performance.

"The Wager."

In "The Wager," the great Metro-Rolfe production which will be seen at the Auditorium theatre today Emily Stevens had a rare opportunity to show her tremendous emotional power as an actress. Miss Stevens won high praise in "The Unchained Woman" and "The Wheel of the Law," but "The Wager" is said to bring her rare talents more actively into play than either of the first two productions.

The play written and directed by George D. Baker, is filled with powerful dramatic situations. In one of these Daisy Doyle is induced by Police Commissioner Stone to relieve a jeweler of gems, so that Stone may win a wager. The complications that follow from the basis of the powerful play. As an extra feature the second episode of "Patria" with Mrs. Vernon Castle will be seen tomorrow. "War Brides" with Nazimova.

"War Brides."

In the cast which will be seen in support of Nazimova in the Herbert Brenon photodramatic production of "War Brides," there are two members of the vaudeville company which appeared with this star in her successful tour. One of these, Gertrude Berkeley, never has appeared in moving pictures except under Mr. Brenon's direction, and had decided to retire from stage and screen, when Nazimova and Mr. Brenon induced her to return to play her big part in "War Brides," that of the aged mother of soldiers. Miss Berkeley appeared under the Brenon direction in "The Two Orphans" and "The Soul of Broadway." In the photodrama her role is second in gripping intensity only to that portrayed by Nazimova herself. Nila Mac also was in Nazimova's company, and will have her previous role.

Other well-known players will complete the strong array. Seen at Auditorium tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, Mrs. Vernon Castle in "Patria" will be seen Thursday also, center of the bench as possible.

"Blue Streak."

Perhaps the fondest memories in the rugged life of Bert Gudgeon, the greatest cowboy in the world, who appears in William Fox's "The Blue Streak," center about the late Col. Cody, known to every kid in this land as "Buffalo Bill." Gudgeon worked in Buffalo Bill's "Wild West Show" for two years, 1915 and 1906. As the show's leading rider he came to know the Colonel as few others have. "Blue Streak" with Wm. Nigh, also Charlie Chaplin in "The Count" will be seen at the Auditorium, Sunday.

Theatrical enterprises about the only branch of human endeavor where there is no veneration for age, public demand making it necessary to keep a little ahead of the times rather than up to the minute and it has been by following this rule that the management of the "Tango

Queens has maintained a superior standing in the burlesque field. When the "Tango Queens" come to the Auditorium next Monday, there will be presented an array of burlesque, vaudeville and extravaganza; there will be dance numbers as new as the morning newspaper and including the different Tangos which have supplanted the animal dances; the the organization is headed by the

ETHEL GREEN, Monday, "Tango Queens" Auditorium, Monday, chief of the fun brigade Tom Coyne who seems to gain in popularity each season.

Harry Harvey assists Coyne in the fun-making department and with such able assistants as Milt Frankford, Ethel Green, Dempsy and Betrice, Eva Lappin and the great Egyptian dancer Mlle. Lovera. The "Tango Queens" is said to be the liveliest whirling girlie show of the year full of "pep." The illuminated runway is one of the features.

"Purity." The studio seen in "Purity" the great seven act art feature drama soon at the Auditorium theatre was patterned after that of Prince Eugen, the great Russian painter, whose works of art decorate the Royal Palace in Stockholm, Sweden.

The setting for this scene is one of the masterpieces of the work of Edward Langley, special technical director engaged for the filming of this production. Mr. Langley is world famous for his authoritative knowledge of interiors and architecture.

ALHAMBRA. Tonight and Tomorrow.

The spell of circus water a web of intrigue over John Miller and his wife, Grace, in "The Web of Desire," the new World Picture of Broadway.

Made which is scheduled for appearance at the Alhambra theatre tonight and tomorrow, with Miss Ethel Clayton as the star. In this thrilling and throbbing drama Miss Clayton is supported by handsome Rochcliffe Fellows.

Friday and Saturday.

In discussing "The Dummy," his latest Famous Players-Paramount picture which will be the attraction at the Alhambra, theatre Friday and Saturday, Jack Pickford, who is starring in it, said: "If anyone had told me that the 'deaf and dumb talk' I learned for the purposes of sending noiseless messages to my pals in school behind the teacher's back would some day be the foundation for one of my screen characterizations, I should certainly have been the most surprised person in the world."

GRAND.

Pots and Pans Peggy.

Here is a delightfully fresh, clean and wholesome story of a little Irish girl, with unfailing good nature and warm heartedness is responsible for the regeneration of a home in which selfishness and unhappiness dwell. The author has injected a certain amount of plain, wholesome wit that will bring more than one laugh from the audience. The humor well woven together with pathos construes a story that being free from all blunders and "sexy" suggestions, will be appreciated by those who wish to be entertained and not thrilled during every one hundred feet of film. "Pots and Pans Peggy" will be shown at the Grand on Thursday of this week.

HIGH SCHOOL.

Ford Hawaiian.

The seat sale for the engagement of the Ford Hawaiian Quintet opened at Erman's Arcade Drug store yesterday. Good seats may yet be had to hear this peerless quintet play and sing the most popular music of the day. Their programme includes "The Rosary" on the Hawaiian Guitar. This has been pronounced the most wonderful rendition of that famous song. For the patriotic they have "Stars and Stripes Forever."

People who have heard the Ford Hawaiian Quintet in Cincinnati and Detroit say that the citizens of Newark will hear one of the best Hawaiian Troupes on the road. They appear at the High School Auditorium on the evening of Friday, April 13th.

HARTFORD TWP.

S. S. CONVENTION

The Hartford Township Sunday School convention was held at the Congregational church, Croton, on Sunday, both afternoon and evening. A very interesting program was rendered at each session. Evans of Newark on the subject of "Organization." Special music for the evening consisted of a solo by Miss Myers, a solo by Rev. Mr. Ward, pastor of the Congregational church and a Trio given by three ladies. Short talks were given by the three ministers of Croton and the County Secy., Miss Wygant. The principal address of the evening was given by Mr. Evans, on the subject, "A Challenge to the Youth." The singing at
